To spell a word I can split the word into syllables.

To spell a word I can think of the base word.
To spell a word I can use words I already know.
To learn my word I can come up with a sentence to help me remember.

Eg. because = big elephants can always understand small elephants